

Q: SEE (Q SOURCE Book 6)

Gut instinct, ESP, your sixth-sense, reading people, seeing without your eyes... When Sean met Karen, she was focussed on other things; Seans not giving-up that easy. ----- Q: SEE. BOOK 6 in the Q SOURCE series; part of The Furai Compilation. ----- EXCERPT FROM Q: SEE Copyright 2015 RICHARD SKEET All rights reserved. ... Karen, looking up from her monitor, purposely not making eye contact. Karen: Sean? Sean smiles warmly. Sean: In the flesh. Karen? From Sharon? Irish-eyes so blue; cant stop starin! Sean drops his Rs a-little, sounds like an educated Bostonian. Cute. But I aint paid by the hour. Karen smirks. Karen, feigning half-hearted interest: How do you know Im from Sharon? Karen couldve used her regional-accent, instead, she keeps her air of superiority using non-regional, homogenized-American diction. Message received; tough egg to crack. Sean smiles; hell try again. Sean: The Feng Shui in your office is all wrong; having your back to that picture-window, bad news. Sean couldve spoken in many regional-accents. Hes educated; lived in many different-places. Sean purposely chooses to drop his Rs down even further, to sound like a lower-class local-yokel from the wrong side of the tracks, (Weymouth,) who has no right to try and see a $14,000-a-month penthouse-apartment. Sean knew this would get under Karens skin a-little. Also knew her response, the accent she chooses to respond with, would tell him a-lot. If Karen tries to mirror him: it means she wants his business. If she continues with her homogenized, proper, non-regional, uppity-pronunciations, shes announcing: she does not want him to stay. Karen: I dont believe in all that metaphysical garbage. Exclamation point. She kept her Rs hard, and she insulted him. She does not want his business. I should walk. Sean smiles. Closes his eyes; inhales deeply, as if drawing in energy. Pulls-out a small notebook; studies her; concentrates; begins to sketch. Karen: What are you writing? Sean continues, unfazed; gazing at her deeply, sketching something in his notebook. Sean, not looking-up from his notebook: You believe in what your eyes tell you? What your five-senses pick-up? Karen: Thats whats real.
